MEMORANDUM FOR CLIENT

FROM: CAPT MENDEL TAUB (Dover AFB Area Defense Counsel's Office)

Subject: Tools to Cope with Stress

1. Legal troubles are often very stressful, but there are a number of healthy ways to cope with this stress. There are a number of agencies that can help you develop the skills you may need to cope effectively. I have listed some of them below. Before using any of these services, I recommend you talk with me first about the best service to use for your particular situation. Depending on which one you use, what you say may not be confidential.

a. Chaplains/Clergy (insert local contact info) have confidentiality (like my office) and are trained to help you with the problems you are facing, including spiritual counseling. There is an absolute privilege for all information confided in a chaplain or clergy as a formal act of conscience or faith.

b. Military One Source (MOS) (1-800-342-9647) provides telephonic, online, and face-to-face counseling. <https://www.militaryonesource.mil/non-medical-counseling/>

c. Military Family Life Counselor (MFLC) (insert local contact number) are licensed counselors that assist service members and their families with deployment adjustments, stress management, issues related to PCS, relationships, problems at work, grieving, and more. (insert web address for local MFLC; this can be found on your installation's FSS webpage)

d. Base Mental Health (insert local contact info) provides licensed psychologists, psychiatrists, and social workers. In addition to you seeking services on your own initiative, if certain individuals, including your First Sergeant or me, believe you are a danger to yourself, we can recommend to your commander that you be referred for a mental health evaluation under the Limited Privilege for Suicide Prevention (LPSP) Program.

e. National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (NSPL): If you are ever feeling desperate, alone or hopeless you can call the NSPL at 988 or 1-800-273-TALK (8255). NSPL is a free, confidential, 24-hour hotline available to anyone in suicidal crisis or emotional distress. <http://www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/>

2. REMEMBER: You are a valuable person and member of the Department of the Air Force Family. We are committed to providing you services and support during this stressful time. If you have any questions concerning this information, please call me at DSN 445-6996 or Commercial (302) 677-6995.

Area Defense Counsel

Dover ADC Initial In-Brief

- I am Dover AFB's Public Defender. I help any military member facing a court-martial, Article 15 (NJP), administrative discharge, paperwork, etc. I work for my clients, and I'm the only person on base who truly has your best interests in mind. My boss is Maj Allen Abrams at JB Langley-Eustis, Virginia. He is in charge of all the ADCs in the Eastern Region. My MAJCOM is the Department of the Air Force, Military Justice and Discipline Directorate, Trial Defense Division (DAF/JAJD). This means I don't work for the base legal office, nor do I work for, report to, or get rated by anyone on this base.

- I am a licensed attorney. Everything you tell me or SrA Hart, the defense paralegal, is covered by the attorney-client privilege. Only you can break this privilege by disclosing what we discuss to someone else, or by authorizing SrA Hart or me to do so. I will not even disclose that you came to our office. Even if you told me you committed a crime, I cannot be forced to disclose that fact to anyone. The only time I'm authorized to break your privilege is if I believe it's necessary to prevent you from: 1) committing a crime which will cause serious harm or death to someone, 2) significantly impairing national security, or 3) causing serious harm to yourself.

- Other than a chaplain, NO ONE offers a complete confidential communication privilege. Anything you say to any of the following individuals can be used against you: doctors, nurses, behavioral health professionals (FAP/Mental Health), ADAPT, AFRC, civilian or military personnel, friends, family, co-workers, supervisors, etc.

Right to Remain Silent

- You can be ordered to attend an ADAPT or FAP appointment, and if you are, you must go. However, you CANNOT be ordered by any commander, superior officer or NCO, doctor, counselor, etc. to say anything which might incriminate you.

- Your right to remain silent is absolute. No one can compel you to incriminate yourself, and no one can use your exercise of this right against you. The fact that you invoked your right to remain silent cannot be mentioned at a court-martial, much less used against you to prove your guilt or worsen your punishment.

- Choosing to remain silent is NOT an admission of guilt, nor does it make you "look guilty." I may advise you not to talk even though you are not guilty of anything. If I believe it is in your best interests to make a statement, I will advise you accordingly.

- Even if you already made a statement or answered questions, you may still invoke your right to remain silent from now on.

Right to Refuse Consent

- You have the right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures of your body and your belongings. You do not have to give consent to a search or seizure of anything (dorm room, vehicle, phone, urine, etc.). If you consent to a search, anything found during that search can be used against you in a court-martial.

Right to Counsel

- You have the right to consult with an attorney prior to making any oral or written statements, and you have the right to have an attorney present during questioning.

- You may hire, at your own expense, a civilian lawyer of your choice. If you do, I will serve as an associate counsel if you wish.

- You may ask for another military attorney by name, and if that attorney is available he/she will be detailed to represent you. If you do request a specific military attorney and that request is granted, you must request my chain of command permit me to remain on your case.

Three Basic Rules

Rule 1: Do not talk about your case to anyone but myself and SrA Hart.

Rule 2: Stay out of trouble between now and the time your case is resolved. Your unit will be watching you closely, and will be more likely to give you paperwork, NJP, etc. for even minor reasons (tardiness, sloppy uniform, etc.).

Rule 3: DO NOT LIE TO ME. I do not make moral judgements about my clients. My job is to represent your interests to the best of my ability in order to meet your goals, whether that's being acquitted at a court-martial, retained at a discharge hearing, getting paperwork dropped, etc. I evaluate the evidence against you and try to hold the government to its burden of proof. I am not a miracle worker. I seek to get you the best result possible. If you lie to me, you are only undermining my ability to represent you to the best of my ability and secure the best possible outcome for you.

I voluntarily sign confirming I have reviewed and understand the above and received the Dealing with Stress Memorandum.
